

Language Lab Worksheet: Amusement Parks (Ride or Cry)

Vocabulary List:

 1. Cut somebody off - When someone cuts you off, they interrupt you — in conversation or traffic.

 2. Wardrobe malfunction - That's when your clothes betray you in public. Think ripped pants or a popped button.

 3. Catch a wave - Originally surfing lingo, but we used it figuratively — like “catching a wave of inspiration or energy.”

 4. Season's pass - When you buy a membership to an amusement park for a season, and that pass means you can enter as much as you want without paying every time you go.

 5. Rickety / Creaky - Both describe something unstable or old.

 6. Vertebrae - Your vertebrae are the bones in your spine (you have 33 of them!)

 7. Core memory - A memory so strong it becomes part of who you are.

 8. Take in (everything) - To take in means to absorb — sights, sounds, vibes.

 9. Flabbergasted - It means totally shocked or amazed.

 10. Wand / Butterbeer / The Resistance - We had a magical detour into Harry Potter and Star Wars. Wands cast spells, Butterbeer is wizarding soda, the Resistance is the rebel force.

 11. Shrink / Shrunk (verb) - That's when clothes get smaller.

 12. Deceived - To be deceived means to be tricked.

 13. Get the better of me - When your emotions or instincts take over.

 14. Scared vs. Scary - Quick grammar tip! You're scared — the thing is scary.

 15. Freefall - That moment on a ride — or in life — when gravity takes over. Pure adrenaline.

😄 16. Exuberance - High-energy joy.

🧠 17. Frontal lobe - That's the part of the brain responsible for decision-making.

🌀 18. Inertia - Physics in action! Inertia means objects in motion stay in motion — like you flying sideways in a spinning ride.
